in the contracts to the extent the Department may deem proper.

1. Seven minutes are allowed to each intermediate office, when not otherwise specified, for issorting the mails,

2. On routes where the mode of conveyance idmits of it, the special agents of the Postoffice bepartment, also postoffice blanks, mail bags, tooks and keys, are to be conveyed without extended.

2. On routes where the moue of conveyane admits of it, the special agents of the Postoffice Bepartment, also postoffice blanks, mail bags, locks and keys, are to be conveyed without extra charge.

3. "Way bills" or receipts, prepared by postmasters or other agents of the Department, will accompany the mails, specifying the number and destination of the several bags, to be examined by the postmasters, to insure regularity in the delivery of bags and pouches.

4. No pay will be made for trips not performed; and for each of such omissions, if the failure be occasioned by the fault of the contractor or carrier, three times the pay of the trip will be deducted. For arrivals so far behind time as to break connection with depending mails, and not sufficiently excused, one-fourth of the compensation for the trip is subject to forfeiture. For repeated delinquencies of the kind herein specified, enlarged penalities, proportioned to the nature thereof, and the importance of the mail, may be made.

5. For leaving behind or throwing off the mails, or any portion of them, for the admission of passengers, or for being concerned in setting up or rimning an express conveying intelligence in advance of the mail, a quarter's pay will be deducted.

6. Fines will be imposed, unless the delinquency be promptly and satisfactorily explained by certificates of postmasters or the sindayits of other credible persons, for falling to arrive in contract time; for neglecting to take the mail from, or deliver it into, a postoffier, for suffering it to be wet, injured, destroyed, robbed, or leat, and for refusing, after demand, to convey the mail as frequently as the contractor runs, or is concerned in running. a coach, car, or steamboat on a route.

7. The Postmaster General may annul a contract for repeated failures to run agreeably to contract, for violating the postoffice isse, or disobeying the instructions of the Department, for refusing to discharge a carrier when required by the Department to do so; for running an express or packages c quish the contract.

? Payments will be made by collections from, or drafts on, postmasters or otherwise, after the expiration of each quarter—say in Hovembea.
